BALTIC PLANE INCIDENT PROTESTED AGAIN

McCarthy Due To Shout 'Not Enough' Next

Will Hit Truman's Release Of Files; FBI Papers Not Freed

WASHINGTON, May 5—(AP)—President Truman's decision to hand over some government loyalty files to Senate Communist investigators put Senator McCarthy to work today on a "not enough" protest.

In another development, the Justice Department said it never received any evidence from the Office of Strategic Services (OSS) to support charges that Amerasia magazine officials and State Department employees were shipping atomic secrets to Russia in 1945.

McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, has said a former OSS agent would testify that A-bomb data did find its way to the Soviet Union in the Amerasia case. The agent, Frank Bielaski, said yesterday there is some substance to what McCarthy asserted, but he did not entirely back up McCarthy.

Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) who heard Bielaski testify at a secret session, said the picture Bielaski portrayed "is very serious." But Lodge declined to comment on the A-bomb angle.

Reversing his earlier refusal to release government loyalty files, Mr. Truman agreed late yesterday to let a Senate foreign relations subcommittee examine secret State Department files on 81 persons cited by McCarthy in his charges of communism in the government.

Senator Tydings (D-Md.), the committee chairman, said in announcing the President's decision that the approval does not apply to the FBI's so-called "raw" files. Tydings added, however, that "there will be FBI material" in some of the State Department files the committee gets.

McCarthy has charged that the department is infested with Communists and Red sympathizers. He has contended all along that to obtain proof of his accusations, the committee must have access to the FBI files as well as State Department records.

McCarthy told a reporter "I'm going to hold my fire" until tomorrow night when he is scheduled to address a convention of young Republicans in Chicago. He said the speech will be aired on a nationwide radio network.

It was learned that he intends to blast the Administration for not making the FBI files available, too, and for confining access to State Department records to the 81 cases he outlined in a Senate speech Feb. 20.

Mr. Truman refused in March to turn over any loyalty files on the ground it would cripple the FBI, smear innocent people and wreck the federal loyalty program.

Tydings said the President changed his mind about the 81 state department files after learning that those records were examined 2½ years ago by four other congressional committees.

Sweden To Protest Seizures In Baltic

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 5—(UP)—Government quarters said today Sweden will protest to Russia against the seizure and surveillance of Swedish fishing vessels in the Baltic Sea where an American Navy plane was believed shot down by the Russians.

The Swedish sources said a stiffly-worded note will be delivered to the Kremlin within a few days.

It was believed Denmark might also send a protest. Four Danish fishing vessels have been missing off the Russian-held Baltic coast since April 28.

The American plane and its 10-man crew has been missing since April 8.

Numerous articles believed to be from the missing plane, including a bullet-punctured life raft and a bullet-marked nose wheel assembly, have been found by the Baltic fishing vessels.

President Contradicted?

Record, World News Grave

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON, April 5—(UP)—The record and the news of the world failed today to explain President Truman's confidence that the international situation is improving.

He told his news conference yesterday that the situation is not nearly as bad as in 1946. The President said it probably will be possible to reduce the fiscal 1952 defense budget.

Just one week earlier National Defense Secretary Louis Johnson startled Congress with what added up to an emergency request for more defense money. Mr. Johnson got it.

Congress heard the Secretary's account of a series of grave international developments and began adding $350,000,000 to the Defense budget for fiscal 1951. That will bring the total to $14,261,400,000—of which about $1,385,000,000 would not be cash but contract commitments to be paid off in later years.

Mr. Johnson said the immediate need for a third of a billion new defense dollars was determined by a military staff survey of events since last Sept. 23. On that day, Mr. Truman announced the Russians had achieved an atomic explosion.

The secretary said: "We have also appraised recent events which make it entirely possible that appropriations in excess of those which have been requested for the current year will be required in succeeding years not only for our own military forces but also for the military (European) aid program."

That statement by Mr. Johnson on April 27 reads like a direct contradiction of Mr. Truman's statement of yesterday.

Mr. Johnson said there were eight specific incidents or situations

Big Items Up In Money Bill

House Takes Up AEC, VA Appropriations

WASHINGTON, May 5—(AP)—The House heads into the big money sections of a $29,000,000,000 appropriation bill today, with some large increases in the offering to cripple an economy drive.

Pressing to get the bill out of the way next week—it has been under consideration since before Easter—House leaders called a Saturday session.

Today's part of the 431-page bill—which finances more than 40 federal agencies for the fiscal year beginning in July—carries allotments for the Atomic Energy Commission and a score of other independent agencies.

It will be followed by the section appropriating money for rivers and harbors and flood control projects scattered throughout the country, and finally by the $13,911,000,000 military allotment.

Blanketed in with the Atomic Energy Commission and the other independent agencies is the Veterans' Administration, which is down for $5,801,782,795 of the bill's total.

No reductions are expected to be made by the House in funds recommended by the Appropriations Committee for the AEC and the Veterans' Administration.

A husky increase may be voted in the $632,620,000 earmarked for the Army engineers, who handle the flood control and rivers and harbors projects. Some members want the fund hiked to around $800,000,000.

The Appropriations Committee already has agreed to lead a drive to add $350,000,000 for Air power to the funds it originally recommended for national defense.

Yesterday the House tentatively approved a 1951 budget for $680,384,130 for the Interior Department, adding $1,500,000 to the sum recommended by the Appropriations Committee.

'Hazing' Death Bring Suspension

Fraternity Under Fire Over Road Mishap

SPRINGFIELD, May 5—(AP)—Wittenberg College officials today were debating whether they should make permanent their suspension of a fraternity following a "hazing" that led to the death of a pledge.

The Alpha Tau Omega chapter was suspended indefinitely last night by Dr. Clarence C. Stoughton, College president, who said chapter officers must resign immediately.

The school's action came less than 24 hours after Dean Niswonger, 20, pledge from Dayton, O., was killed by a truck, and another pledge, Jerry Wendell, 20, also of Dayton, was injured. An investigation showed the two had been blindfolded, driven into the country, and left near Austin Richards said the youths must have fallen asleep after removing their blindfolds and sitting down in the road. He ruled Niswonger's death was accidental.

Dr. Stoughton said the fraternity violated both College and inter-fraternity rules "in sending Niswonger and Wendell on this mission."

Officers of the chapter, which has 50 members, are Clifford Sampson, Indian River, Mich., president; Morton Sadler, Nashville, Tenn., vice president; Ellard K. Amundsen, Alberta, Minn., treasurer, and William Grubbs, Bellefontaine, O., secretary.

Under the indefinite suspension, the chapter can not take part in social and intramural functions or any College and campus activities.

Dr. Stoughton said the College's discipline committee will communicate with the fraternity's national office "to determine the future status of the Wittenberg chapter." Permanent suspension could result, he said.

State Liquor Board Will Hear 28 Cases

Citation hearing against 28 permit holders, with "gambling devices" again leading the list of charges, will be heard by the Ohio Board of Liquor Control next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in Columbus.

Two of the permit holders are from the Salem area. Evelyn V. Page of the Brookside Park Cafe, near Lisbon, and the Moose Lodge of Minerva have both been charged with unlawful possession of gambling devices.

Members of the board hearing the cases include F. M. Krebs of Dayton, Mrs. Maude McQuate of Cleveland, Walter W. Mitchell of Youngstown and Simon L. Leis of Cincinnati.

Jaycees To Conduct Paper Drive Sunday

The Junior Chamber of Commerce paper drive, being held Sunday in connection with Operation SPIC, will start at 9 a. m. with a fleet of trucks and most of the Jaycee members poised to tour Salem and Perry Township.

Lewis Briskin, paper drive chairman, today said expectations are that this will be the largest drive to be held here. Robert Baughman and Matt Melitska are assisting Briskin.

The paper should be bundled and put on the curb or front of the porch where the bundles are visible from the street. If possible, the magazines and newspaper should be tied separately.

Headquarters for the drive will be the Fitzpatrick lot at the corner of E. Pershing and Penn ave. For the benefit of patrons who oversleep or whose paper is missed by the trucks, a call to Salem 6612, Operation SPIC booth, between 9 a. m. and 4 p. m., will bring a crew of men to pick up the paper.

Jaycees are to report at the parking lot at 8:30 a. m. for assignment.

Long time plans against water famine will be laid at the first Ohio Water Congress in Akron, May 11 and 12.

Defense Pleads Heer Was Drunk

Coed Tells How OSU Student Was At Dance

COLUMBUS, May 5—(AP)—Defense attorneys today were expected to produce more witnesses to bolster their claim the defendant in a "fraternity row" slaying trial was too drunk to have the mental capacity to form intent to kill.

James D. Heer, 21, Euclid, O., is charged with first degree murder in the Nov. 12 slaying of Jack T. McKeown, 21, Norwood, O. Heer is a former Ohio State student and was a Delta Tau Delta pledge. McKeown, fraternity member, was managing editor of the University's daily newspaper.

An Ohio State Freshman coed testified yesterday that she thought Heer was drunk and not himself several hours before the shooting near the fraternity house.

The testimony came from Patricia Ann (Patty) Smith of Bay Village, O., who also said she "bawled out" Heer before the slaying.

She was at a party at the fraternity house before a Homecoming dance the evening of Nov. 11 and also observed Heer at around 12 or 12:30 a. m., she testified.

Mixed drinks made from whiskey were served at the fraternity house, Miss Smith said.

Defense Attorney Matthew L. Bigger asked if Heer conducted himself "as a gentleman" at that time.

"Yes, sir," Miss Smith answered.

"Did you observe his conduct about 12 or 12:30," Bigger asked.

"What was his condition?"

"He was drunk."

"Was he himself?"

"No, sir."

She said she shifted a drink of whiskey from Heer to her date and herself because "I didn't think he (Heer) should have any more."

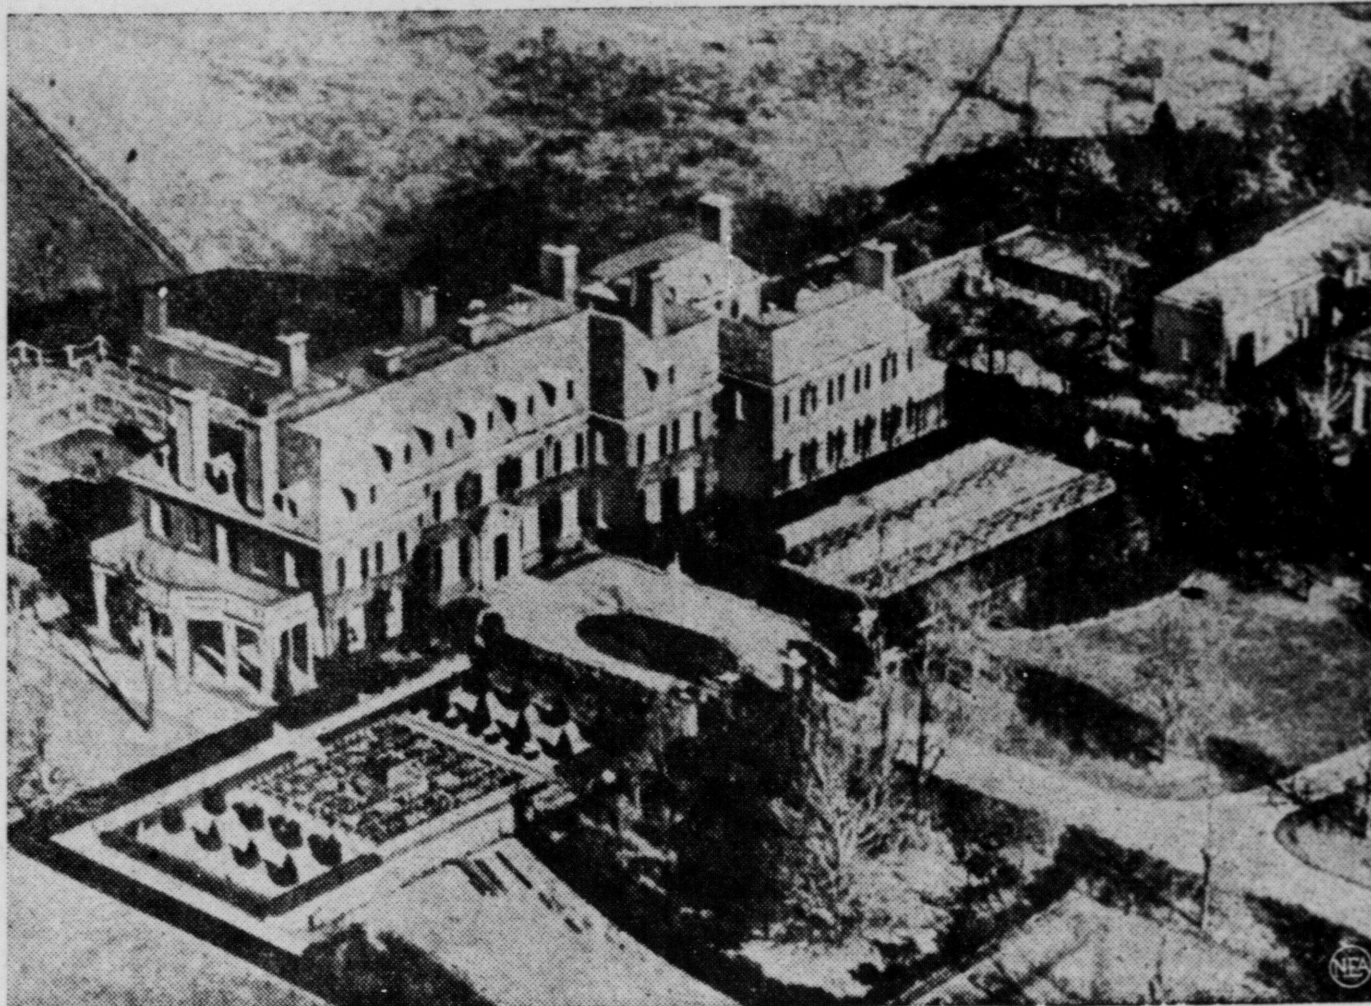

Miss Smith and her escort, Jack Johnson, and Heer and his "date," Miss Joyce Crofton of Cleveland, together attended a dance the evening of Nov. 11.

Miss Smith said Miss Crofton cried at the dance and "I told Jim that if Jack treated me that way I'd be mad at him."

A police chemist's report was brought into the trial shortly before the state rested its case.

The report showed a blood count of 13/100ths per cent alcohol for Heer four hours after the slaying. It bore the notation "subject may have been under influence of alcohol."

The report was brought out

Seventy-One Beds! For How Many Reds?

Neighbors to the old J. P. Morgan mansion, above, on Matinecock Point, Glen Cove, N. Y., are concerned about what their new neighbor, Leonid A. Morozov, Soviet diplomat at the UN, plans to do with the 71 folding beds recently moved into the mansion. If he plans to use the property for a summer resort, they say, he's violating zoning laws. The State Department was asked to decide whether Morozov's status as a UN diplomat makes him immune to local zoning laws.

Census Workers Up National Payroll

WASHINGTON, May 5—(AP)—The Commerce department employed 145,055 persons during March for the nationwide census, the joint committee on reduction of nonessential federal expenditures reported today.

The committee said that exclusive of the temporary census employees there was net decrease of 2,229 in other civilian employment in the executive branch of the government in March as compared to February.

The committee's monthly report said there was a slight increase in the civilian agencies of the government, while total civilian employment in the military establishment declined for the seventh consecutive month.

March civilian employment in the military totaled 742,841, a decrease of 2,386. Employment in civilian agencies, exclusive of the temporary census roll, totaled 1,203,999, an increase of 157 over February.

The first Rose Bowl football game was in 1916.

Weddings Top Divorce Actions In April

There were 70 new actions brought in March, including 37 divorce actions, 12 for money only in which a total of $125,000 was demanded, and four cognovit note actions.

FCC Member Urges Education In Radio

COLUMBUS, May 5—(AP)—Non-commercial interests should become an integral part of radio and television for better programming, a Federal Communications Commission member said last night.

Miss Frieda Henock addressed the 20th Institute for Education by Radio, now in session at Ohio State University. She said educators should jump into television because its expansion "is about to begin."

Giving her views on radio programs, she said:

"As long as the objectives of American broadcasting are commercial, it isn't going to go very far to make radio a creative force in our society."

"If you get into television now, you may prevent it assuming the same character as our aural broadcasting. We get for the most part (radio) programs molded in the fires of business competition, and whose salutary effects are merely incidental—"

Bear Hug

IN THE postmortem of Florida's voting last Tuesday, one bit of evidence is getting the lion's share of attention.

It is the fact that Claude Pepper, the loser in the contest for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senator, was the "beneficiary" of the C.I.O.'s unqualified support. And among those giving close attention to Pepper's defeat are many who think the C.I.O. hurt him more than it helped him.

If this is so, it means that C.I.O. and the A.F.L., though anxious to get into politics all the way to their ears, must realize they may do more harm than good in certain political situations. In other words, their support for a political candidate may turn out to be a bear hug.

If they are unable to balance the votes they alienate with votes the candidate might not have had without the union's endorsement, the net effect is to lengthen the odds against their own favorites.

In recent years many candidates in primaries and elections have solicited the endorsement of labor unions. Many will continue to solicit it. But some may be forced to conclude that their chances of success will be brighter if they avoid the bear hug of a minority which is willing to hug anyone who says he is opposed to the Taft-Hartley Act, regardless of his other principles or lack of principles.

Samuel Gompers reasoned that if labor unions rewarded their friends and stayed out of partisan politics they would have no enemies. His advice has been regarded by the new bosses of the labor unions. They are discovering what it means to have enemies in politics.

Bridge Crossed In Advance

A FEW DAYS AGO there was a quickie strike of teletype operators for United Press. Their jobs were performed by management personnel for the time-being; there was no interruption of service. Clients of the news service were not inconvenienced. Many wouldn't have known there was a strike if they hadn't read about it.

But one of the clients, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, was inconvenienced. It turned off its own teletype machines supplying news from the Washington City News Service, a subsidiary of United Press. It apparently wanted to be inconvenienced. This was so curious that the Labor Committee of the House of Representatives asked for an explanation. And the explanation was a dilly.

It said the service was turned off because Michael J. Galvin, the undersecretary of labor, was afraid strike developments "might interfere with the operations of the department." So he took no chances.

He crossed his bridges well in advance of the time he reached them, which was such a neat trick that the House Labor Committee properly wanted to know whether he had discovered something the world hadn't discovered yet.

Too Simple Arithmetic

WITH WALTER REUTHER claiming he won his 10-cent package from Chrysler Corp. in the 100-day strike now over, and United Auto Workers claiming workers lost an average of only $1,000, simple arithmetic indicates it will take each employee five years of full employment at 40 hours a week, minus two-week vacations, to make up the loss. But the arithmetic is too simple.

The union is talking about average losses, but human beings aren't averages. They are individuals. Some Chrysler workers lost their shirts and will never get them back. Others may have lost nothing. Others will live under handicaps of varying weights for years to come while they struggle to make up their losses. They won't wage increase, only social security benefits which of far greater consequence to their bargainners than they were to the workers.

The wealth the workers might have produced under Chrysler labels is gone forever. The company lost thousands of sales. Its dealers lost thousands of customers, and some of them will stay lost. This does not deny there were gains made in the final settlement over the bargaining

How To Enjoy Illness

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK
WHAT CONVINCES me women are superior to men is their ability to enjoy a brief illness.

For years I have known that women, pound for pound, are better looking than men, wiser, more durable of purpose and less susceptible to bankruptcy.

But it is their resilience of spirit under the test of illness that shows how much better adjusted they are to life, how much more adaptable to strain, than the paltry male.

The truth of this distinction between the sexes dawned upon me during the last two days. I spent them in bed, racked by assorted chills and fevers incidental to the departure of winter and the arrival of spring.

morning and saw more than the usual number of spots before my eyes. I began to groan and call for my life insurance policies.

This has always been my standard way of dealing with illness—to check my insurance, pull down the shades and lie in bed groaning and letting my beard grow. When the whiskers start scratching and the neighbors begin complaining about my caterwauling, I am usually strong enough to get up and go back to work.

But I found I could no longer groan in my own home. Strange noises disturbed the maid, and it was her day to come.

"The trouble with you men," said Frances, (my wife), plumping up the pillow, "is that you don't get any rest or pleasure out of being sick."

And that is true. Our conscience won't let us.

But women are too sensible to let a small illness annoy them. They make a game of it, so far as they can. They keep their faces table. But there is no evidence that they were brought about by the strike. The only tangible result brought about by the strike was the subtraction of considerably more than a billion dollars' worth of wealth from all the human beings who look to the Chrysler Corp. for their incomes. If that was its purpose, it was a mighty victory.

A Question Of Good Faith

A LETTER from Representative Clevenger of the Fifth Ohio District is being read with interest by postal employees objecting to the Postmaster General's recent economy order. Representative Clevenger is a minority member of the House Appropriations Committee, which passes on bills appropriating funds for government departments.

Referring to the Postmaster General's economy order, he recalls that in 1947 the House cut the Bureau of Customs to less than 10 percent of its budget request, whereupon the Commissioner of Customs furloughed or fired 80 per cent of the guards along national borders and ports of entry. A similar incident occurred during the 80th Congress, he recalls, when the Bureau of Reclamation failed to get everything it asked for. In both cases Representative Clevenger declares, the strategy was to hit public conveniences where it would hurt most, for the sake of giving a bona fide economy move in Congress a black eye. He believes this is the present strategy of the Postoffice Department.

"Too often," he says, "there is but one approach to the matter of government, and that is bigger and bigger grabs out of the federal treasury and attacks on men who are trying to restore sanity in government, rather than an honest effort on the part of the executive branch of the government to economize without impairment of essential service such as delivery of mail."

The Postmaster General's economy order has confronted Americans who object to the runaway cost of government with a dilemma. They cannot support it without assuming it was issued in good faith, not as a ruse to produce such a loud squawk against curtailment of postal service that Congress would feel compelled to appropriate more money. But if they cannot assume good faith, they are in the awkward position of seeming to be opposed to economy.

They May Yet Get Out of the Woods

What Is A Trillion?

By HAROLD S. BENSON

WHEN I was a schoolboy in Oklahoma I interlarded my scholastic education with seasonal jobs on my father's place and on neighboring farms.

The neighboring farmers paid well. My earnings weren't large but in those days a dollar, to an Oklahoma schoolboy, was a tidy sum. Helped me in my arithmetic studies. Both at school and at work as a farm hand, I learned to have great respect for any sum such as $100. That amount of cash savings started me through my first year at college. I did odd jobs on the campus to earn the remaining cost.

A dollar was valued by an Oklahoma farm boy of 1920 as representing approximately the energy it took to plow an acre of land with a one-horse plow. That made it pretty valuable. I guess that's why my school teacher had some difficulty getting me to comprehend the huge figure $1,000,000. It took a lively imagination to visualize 1,000,000 robust young farmers strung out across the land, all plowing away at their acre. The line would, in fact, be 41,667 miles long and would reach just about twice around the globe at the Equator.

I'd been out of college several years when we Americans first began to hear vague talk in terms of "billions." To have to wrap my plowing farmers around and around the globe enough times to represent $1,000,000,000 in expended energy was much too much. I had to find some other measuring device. Of course, our arithmetic had taught that a billion was (awesomely) a thousand million! But it required a number of years for me to get any real understanding of the meaning of $1,000,000,000.

A "billion" still whistles off my tongue accompanied by awe. And just as I'm getting used to the idea of using the term, I've been obliged to go back to my arithmetic book looking for another word. I haven't found mention of it in my arithmetic. It's to be found only in the higher mathematics and it isn't explained in down-to-earth terms. However, I've got to tackle it. The word is—"trillion."

A TRILLION IS, we know, a thousand billion; and a billion is a thousand million; and a million is a thousand thousand; and a thousand is—well, a thousand is a thousand times one of those long-ago extinct things I used to get for plowing an acre of land in Oklahoma. But a man with a plow is much too small a denominator in this problem.

So: If you were to drive from New York to Los Angeles and then turn right around and return to New York, you could perform the feat of 166,000,000 times before you would have driven a trillion miles. We think of a second as something fleeting, so short a fragment of time it doesn't show on the face of most clocks. Yet, since a date so far removed as 500 B.C., only about one-tenth of a trillion seconds have ticked off in that recorded time.

The new postage machine in our mailing department at Harding stamps 1,000 envelopes per hour. If we never gave the machine a rest, we'd have to run it on a 24-hour shift for 114,153 years (not days!) to stamp a trillion envelopes. If, a century ago, the value of all the personal property, the assessed value of mineral, water and timber resources and manufactured goods, plus the savings and bank accounts of all the people in the United States had been converted to dollars, it would have totaled only 1/2 of 1 per cent of a trillion.

And lastly, if all this seems silly, perhaps it is. But maybe it isn't. I've taken this flight with astronomical figures because, as a tax paying citizen watching the growth of the federal government, I've found that the need has arrived for understanding what a trillion is. Our national debt has risen to $256,000,000,000 and is increasing rapidly. It is referred to correctly, as the "quarter trillion dollar" debt. All of us need to recognize the full significance of such an incredibly large indebtedness. It is gravely dangerous. Millions of people must expend years of unrewarded hard work to pay it. In fact 1,000,000 people, earning $50 a week, would have to work 100 years and turn over their total income to liquidate it if the government were, tomorrow, to end forever its deficit spending.

"I have nothing to say about the rooster and the drake, because what is there to say? They do not even know how to play canasta, which forces the goose and me to while away the evenings together when I am not otherwise occupied. The goose is a character, for my money, which is inadequate, by the way. You never know what she will do next. Every time I throw down a red three she's as likely as not to lay an egg, which she does too casually to suit me."

"I have nothing further to report at this time, except that there are litters of kittens on every farm within a range of three miles, except the one where they have the tan and white dog that chases cats. The reason there are no kittens there is that there isn't any mother cat. Also there are no kittens on our farm for the same reason. If you would like to have me furnish a mother cat, I would be glad to do so."

"May I suggest, further, that I know why I am being given nothing but milk to drink and intend to resent it when I have time. Actually, it doesn't matter because I have ways and means of getting a balanced diet—and I don't mean rats. I should be that hungry! By the way, did you see the moon the night of May 17? It was so big and bright you could see a mile straight across the country without straining your eyes. Very convenient. Please leave money in the usual place because I must go to town soon to get a few things I need, such as catnip seed."

Overseer's Report

By TRUMAN TWILL

T. MANVILLE the tomcat, general overseer of livestock at the Twillery, has prepared his regular monthly report, containing the following information, presented herewith in his own words:

"Be it hereby known to all present and hereinafter referred to as ladies and gentlemen of the first part that their humble servant, now in charge of the structure commonly known as the Barn, has been in faithful attendance to all his multifarious and nefarious duties and reports everything in A-1 condition."

"The pig is happy at boarding school and reports that he is learning things he never suspected before. He is under the illusion that he is being prepared for a career in a circus, which is what all pigs believe is the reason for the special attention they receive. By the time they wake up, which they never do, it is too late. Their souls have fled to the boarding school way up yonder."

"The hen has a new point of view on egg-laying. This relieves her of considerable embarrassment, because she was deeply hurt by the insinuation of laziness. The fact is, your overseer learned from a series of psychiatric interviews, that she became morose over what she thought was a lack of percentage in laying eggs, only to have them taken away from her. But she now lays them for the sheer fun of it."

"The sheep have confided that they are extremely fond of little pine trees, and I checked on this. They are. You have a surprise in store when you learn how fond they—the sheep, not the trees—squirm through that place where the stream goes under the fence. They wait until they hear the family car leave the barn, then wait a few more minutes and if no ladies or gentlemen show up they have lunch on the trees. You will be needing to do some fence-building."

Well, this time I did everything Frances said. In fact, I relaxed so much that finally she said suspiciously, "I do believe you are enjoying yourself. It's time you got up and started earning me a living again."

And, to tell the truth, the thought was revolting. I'd have preferred to stay in bed, admiring my toes and being waited on—even at the price of two throat swabs a day.

Crime Probe

By JAMES MARLOW

Senate Committee To Begin Work

WASHINGTON
NOW we're going to have a nationwide investigation of crime by a special committee of senators.

Senator Estes Kefauver, Tennessee Democrat, proposed this last January. The senate didn't get around to approving the idea until Wednesday.

This committee, with the help of a hired staff of investigators, will dig into the doings in various cities around the country.

(Don't confuse this with the hearings held here for several weeks now by another senate committee trying to figure out a way of choking off race horse information pumped to gamblers around the country by wire and phone.)

(This committee has called in a number of people who might have something to say on this, including some gambling big shots. But these hearings have not really been a crime investigation. They were not intended to be.)

The big question facing the senate investigators as they start out is this:

1. Is there a super-gang of mobsters running a nationwide crime syndicate?
2. Or is crime, although it criss-crosses the nation, more of a local enterprise engaged in by local mobsters trying to make a fast buck?

THE attorney general, J. Howard McGrath, says if there is a nationwide crime syndicate, his Justice Department doesn't know about it. But some state and city officials, asking government help to mop up, say there is such a syndicate, pulling the crime strings everywhere.

Nevertheless, gambling is nationwide although everywhere, except in Nevada, there are laws against gambling. All states have laws against other forms of crime, such as prostitution, extortion, swindling, and narcotics. But it's gambling which has the spotlight now.

It's hard to believe a gambler can operate in one place very long without the knowledge and connivance of local police or city officials. If he's allowed to continue, it's because he pays off or has done, or is doing, political favors and gets protection that way.

You can see why this is so: unless he's being paid off or has received orders from higher up, even the cop on the beat couldn't afford to let a gambling joint do business under his nose.

If he did, sooner or later he could be accused of stupidity, failure to do his duty, or taking graft. So he'd be a sap to let a law violator work near him unless he was getting money or orders from above.

AND so on up the line, which means that whenever there's any extensive gambling there's corruption. And corruption, since money hunger is the root of it, undermines government and leads to worse crimes, like murder.

A number of states, although they have laws against gambling, are not opposed to gambling as gambling. In them it just depends on where the gambling is done. For example:

They make gambling legal so long as it's done at a race horse track which has a license from the state to do business and take bets. These are called pari-mutuel bets, after the machines which figure out the odds. In such licenses cases, a percentage of the money bet is turned into the state treasury. So the state gets something out of the betting.

But those same states have laws against any betting on the horses if it's done away from the track, that is, up some side street in a handbook, which is another name for a place which takes off-track bets.

Diagnosis Of Troublesome Tongues

IF letters are any guide, then there are many more people who have trouble with their tongues than I should have guessed. Not only do these difficulties with the tongue take many forms, but they also seem to be extremely troublesome and disturbing. One form of tongue trouble is called geographical tongue. In this condition the surface of the tongue comes off in irregular circles like a geographical map.

Often there is itching and heat. Its cause is not known, and in grown-ups its complete cure frequently proves obstinate.

There is another form of tongue trouble in which the tongue develops irregular reddish spots. In some cases white spots appear upon the tongue. This latter condition is most common among heavy smokers. Tobacco and other irritants, including heavy hot foods, should be avoided.

Black hairy tongue (the name describes the appearance well) is caused by yeast.

Sometimes the tongue burns terribly without anything which can be seen on it. This is a distressing condition most common among women after the change of life. This too, like some of the other difficulties with the tongue, is quite resistant to treatment.

In all of these disorders of the tongue therefore, it is necessary to get as accurate a diagnosis as possible and to hope that the condition proves to be one which responds reasonably well to treatment.

Q—After a coronary thrombosis my husband's blood showed a high fat content. Now he is on a low cholesterol diet but finds this diet extremely tiresome.

W. V.

A—Apparently some people with a tendency to disease of the coronary arteries have a larger than normal amount of cholesterol in their blood. Under such circumstances eggs and other foods which contain this substance are banned from the diet. Not all people with coronary difficulty, however, have this blood finding and there is considerable difference of opinion among medical men as to whether restricting cholesterol foods is, or is not, necessary. If the physician advises it, however, it is wise to follow through even if the diet is tiresome.

Q—Is there any possibility that the many shots given to servicemen are causing death to those men now? A physician is supposed to have told a recent widow, "You would be surprised if you knew how many men in their 40's have died as a result of the poisons shot into them during the war."

A—This is a vicious kind of a story. The injections given to servicemen were given to prevent disease. There is no reason whatever to believe that they would be causing any deaths or illness now. I cannot believe that any responsible physician would make such a statement as that quoted.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

THE government went two billion in the red in 10 months and would appreciate faster service on the part of taxpayers.

At the moment there appears to be too much spread between the time a wage-earner picks up his pay and the time he turns it in after deducting his allowance.

Economist Nourse says Congress isn't even trying to save money but he can't say that about the executive department. Harry is making one trip to, to dedicate a dam and several Democrats.

And on their records it looks as though every congressman usually votes to save money . . . in the other fellow's district.

Anyway the President's trip may help a few candidates although I understand he has a wire from Florida that reads, "you were here in April but where were you in May," signed "Claude."

Well, Claude shouldn't have trouble finding work when his term runs out . . . any speech he ever made would show that he's a promising fellow.

ALWAYS AN OUTSTANDING MEETING of the season, the Xi Pi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, held its Founders Day dinner Thursday evening at Parkview Inn, Canfield.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Vesta King; three new exemplars, Mrs. Edward R. Scullion, Mrs. W. P. Reed and Miss Margaret Bryan, with 22 members were seated at a U-shaped table. Lavender sweet peas, yellow roses and baby's breath were combined in the lovely floral arrangement, which was presented Mrs. King after the meeting.

Mrs. John Holzwarth, retiring president, gave the welcome, while the invocation was given by Mrs. W. C. Ferrall.

Mrs. Holzwarth also inducted the new officers, who are:

Frosty Necklines Touch Up Cotton Clothes

Touches of snowy white pique give crispness to these tailored summer fashions designed by Dorothy Cox. The beige chambray suit (above) has a demure Peter-Pan collar with matching cuffs on the elbow-length sleeves.

Broad pique collar swings over the shoulders and across the open back of the bright plaid dress (left). Gray chambray suit (above) is brightened by white collar and cuffs bound in matching chambray. Covered buttons serve as cuff links.

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The touch of white that gleamed so brightly in spring fashions stays in the spotlight in summer daytime clothes. Starchy white collars pop up in all sizes and shapes. Tiny, demure Peter-Pan collars give crispness to tailored suits. Wide, shoulder-mantling collars double as cap sleeves on dresses.

Snowy pique leads the parade of frosty necklines. In keeping with the neat crisp look of white collars and cuffs, clothes are designed with a minimum of fussiness. Skirts are straight but easy-fitting. Sometimes, unpressed pleats release modified fullness. Jackets are kept trim with a tucked front or tiny peplum to break the line. White collars and cuffs bound in contrasting fabric give smart detailing to simple styling. White touches show up against gray, beige, black, navy and bright plaids as well as the range of muted pastels.

Tornadoes Strike 3 States; One Killed

By The Associated Press
Tornado winds cut a destructive path across three states last night, killing at least one person and injuring approximately 50. Twisters whirled across west

Texas and Oklahoma, then moved into Kansas.
Dust storms also plagued the southwest.
The death occurred in Texas. Bill King, 32, was injured fatally at Perryton, as he attempted to rush his family to safety. Thirteen persons were injured there, four seriously.
Kansas counted 37 injured. A twister dipped into a housing project near Great Bend in central Kansas, demolishing several of the barracks-type buildings.

In Perryton, winds whipped across the northwest edge of the town, leveling the high school stadium, tearing up a trailer park and smashing houses.
Perryton has a population of approximately 2,500.
In Oklahoma, tornadoes struck in a least four spots. Several homes and business houses were wrecked in Fort Supply, Okla., a town of about 500.
The Oklahoma highway patrol also reported twisters hit the southern edge of Cordell, the eastern section of Elk City and in rural Washita County.
About one-third of the 30 frame buildings in the Great Bend housing project were demolished. The project formerly was an Army Air Base. Sixty families lived in the buildings.
The project is four miles west of Great Bend.
Dust storms also hit the southwest. Dust at El Paso, Tex., was reported the worst since the mid-thirties. In Lubbock, blinding clouds swirled over the city like heavy choking smoke.
High winds in New Mexico tore the roofs off farm buildings, broke plate glass windows and damaged trees and power lines.

RFC May Soon Undergo Changes By Order
WASHINGTON, May 5—(AP)—The Reconstruction Finance Corp., under heavy fire in Congress, may undergo a shakeup soon.
President Truman was reported by informed sources today to be considering a plan which would place the multi-billion dollar lending agency under supervision of the Treasury or the Commerce department.
Also, he must soon send new nominations for the entire five-man board of directors to a Senate which contains some sharp critics of the present directors' lending actions.

Green pastures, properly managed, provide ideal environment for growing pullets.

Within the past six weeks, the nation has learned that the Administration has set up a high policy committee better to conduct the cold war. It has heard Mr. Truman insist that we must get across to the world our story of the American way of life in opposition to Russian propaganda.
On April 23, Secretary of State Dean Acheson told editors in convention here that Russian Communism was a threat to the existence of this nation and to our civilization.
On April 15, Gen. Omar N. Bradley told a Chicago audience that defense probably would require us to sacrifice a bit of our sovereignty to integrate our armed forces with those of the Atlantic Pact nations. He regarded defense needs so urgent as to require abandonment of our traditional balance-of-arms policy so that the United States could make up European naval and air deficiencies.
Gen. Bradley went before the House armed services committee Tuesday and urged a two-year extension of the draft law. The committee voted the extension yesterday, right after Mr. Truman said that things were looking up.

GOES TO PRISON
ZANESVILLE, May 5—(AP)—Albert L. Smith, 28, Martins Ferry, yesterday was sentenced to one to 20 years in Ohio Penitentiary in the traffic death of Mrs. John Perkins, 45, Zanesville. A common pleas court jury found him guilty yesterday.

Freak Tree

A freak of mother nature, a tree which has its trunk twisted in a complete circle, was found by John Todd of 650 Washington ave. Mr. Todd, a landscaper, brought the oddity from a farm near Elkton to his home last week. It is a maple tree, between 10 and 15 years old and Mr. Todd said he couldn't explain how the trunk had grown in the circular shape.

tions in addition to the Russian atomic explosion which combined to require more defense spending. They were:

1. Fall of China.
2. Threat of Communism in Southeast Asia.
3. Break of diplomatic relations with other puppet states.
4. Russian assumption of control over Polish military.
5. Soviet naval expansion.
6. Russia's attack on U. S. Navy airplane in the Baltic.
7. Soviet demands for Anglo-American withdrawal from Trieste.

Mr. Johnson said he also was persuaded by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's March 29 speech calling for immediate improvement of Alaskan air defenses, modernization of air and ground force equipment, improved anti-submarine arrangements, better intelligence and industrial mobilization plans.

On April 15, Gen. Omar N. Bradley told a Chicago audience that defense probably would require us to sacrifice a bit of our sovereignty to integrate our armed forces with those of the Atlantic Pact nations. TV Stocks Make Headlong Retreat

NEW YORK, May 5—(AP)—Radio-television stocks made a stand at the opening of today's market following a headlong retreat yesterday.

Several TV issues started out with small net losses but almost immediately started forward. Unchanged to fractionally ahead were Radio Corp., Philco, Emerson, and Zenith. Motorola, however, lost around a point.

Thursday TV issues dropped an extreme of about 4 points in a generally lower market.

Elsewhere gains and losses were fairly well divided with changes mostly in small fractions.

Higher were American Telephone, Anaconda Copper, Chrysler, Eastman Kodak, Sears Roebuck, American Can, and International Nickel. Losers included Woolworth, Lockheed, General Motors, United Aircraft, Republic Steel, International Harvester, and American Smelting.

Judge Rowland Wins Appellate Nomination

Probate Judge Victor Rowland, 47, of Cadiz won the contested Republican nomination for the unexpired term in the Seventh district court of appeals.

The Mahoning county election board said Mr. Rowland, who is serving as judge of the probate and juvenile courts of Harrison county, polled 40,826 votes in Tuesday's primary for the unexpired term ending Feb. 8, 1955.

Atty. Francis Kicak, 51, of Youngstown received 5,850 in the 13-county district.

Incumbent Judge Elmer T. Phillips of Warren was unopposed for the full term starting Feb. 9, 1951, and received 46,597 votes.

The democratic aspirants were unopposed. Attorney Karl T. Stouffer, 61, of Homeworth, former prosecutor for Columbiana county, was nominated for the full term with 37,103 votes and incumbent Judge Lynn B. Griffith, 63, of Warren polled 42,296 votes for the unexpired term.

The unexpired term is for that of Judge John Buckley Jr. of Youngstown, who died Jan. 24. Gov. Lausche appointed Judge Griffith Jan. 28.

CONSIDER PROJECT
HICKSVILLE, May 5—(AP)—Voters in the New Milford-Mark Hicksville Hospital district will be asked next fall to approve a special levy to build a $200,000 hospital here. East Tech To Defend Night Relays Title Here Saturday

More Than 20 Teams Expected In 16th Annual Track Meet

Ivan Greene's powerful Cleveland East Tech track team is an odds on favorite to keep on batting 1,000 in the Salem Night Relays. Back for the sixth time tomorrow, Greene's team figures to have little trouble winning its sixth championship.

Last Saturday, the Tech Artisans walked off with their fifth Ohio Wesleyan relays title at Delaware. They scored in nine of 11 events, piling up 31 points to edge Springfield, with 27. The victory ended a three year strangle hold on the title by Springfield.

Standing in Tech's road to victory here are upwards to 20 other schools, who have entered or plan to enter the big meet. Included in the list are the following teams:

Akron Buchtel, East Garfield, North and South, Boardman, Cleveland Benedictine, Cuyahoga Falls, East Palestine, New Castle, Niles, Ravenna, Salem, Sebring, Youngstown Rayen and North. Others who may compete are Cleveland John Adams, Barberton, Louisville and Canton Lehighman. Warren Harding will send one or two relay teams.

Still cross because the Northern Ohio Scholastic Conference scheduled its meet Saturday, depriving the Relays of teams from Mansfield and Canton McKinley and Warren. Meet Manager Fred Cope nevertheless looks forward to a good meet.

"I don't know who'll stop East Tech," he declared today. "It's too bad Mansfield couldn't make it."

WHILE EAST TECH doesn't have any outstanding stars of the Harrison Dillard calibre, their evenly balanced team is a cinch to score heavily throughout the meet. Not many of the athletes who placed high in the meet last year are returning.

One, who is almost a cinch for a first place, is Wagner of Akron North, a classy miler, who will again serve as jump judge. Ben Barrett is head judge of weights and Ray Reasbeck will announce.

STEVE LESICK

Lesick Will Race At Barberton Track

Steve Lesick of Salem is one of the famous hot rod drivers, who will race at the grand opening of the Barberton Speedway this Saturday night.

Lesick, who has gained fame at several auto tracks for his daring and brilliant driving, was the runner up in the 50-lap championship race at the Barberton Speedway last October.

Harry Tuchman of Akron is the new general manager of the Barberton oval. Under Tuchman's direction, the racing plant has been almost completely rebuilt.

New steel bleachers have been installed; the parking lots have been enlarged and graded; the track re-surfaced; and new administration and refreshment buildings have been constructed.

Some of the other noted drivers, who will race Saturday night, are Al Butwill, last season's champion; Bob James, John Duris, Bob Jackson, Don Pennel, Chris Milan, and Don Haggerty.

The hot rods are booked to race every Saturday night during the season with the stock cars getting under way next Wednesday night, May 10 and continuing every Saturday night during the meeting.

Alan Freed, Salem's popular radio and television performer, currently seen five nights weekly over WXEL, Cleveland, will act as master of ceremonies at the grand opening Saturday night.

Softball Meeting To Be Held Tonight

The last softball managers' meeting will be held at 7:30 to-night in the Memorial building. Joe Kelly, league manager, said today he will pass out contract books to managers.

The group will also discuss last minute rules, preparatory to the season's opener on May 15.

Kelley said 10 new lights have been purchased for installation at West End Park, definitely improving the lighting system there. He has also ordered a four-foot wire cyclone fence which will rim the outfield of the park.

Chicago Rookie Tames Yankees

Allows Five Hits In 15-0 Rout Of Bombers

So the Chicago White Sox "raised Cain" with the New York Yankees.

Bob Cain, a skinny lefthander making his first big league start yesterday made the world champs look like the prize chumps in a 15-0 rout.

Nobody ever treated the Yankees like that. And right at home in their triple-decked stadium, too. Good thing for the front office only 8,764 were on hand.

Last time anybody blanked the Yankees at home was April 23, 1948.

Jack Onslow, Sox manager, gave Cain his first start because he wanted to throw a steady diet of southpaws at the Yanks. "Sort of reminds you of Herb Pennock," said Jack after the game. You didn't dare ask the Yanks for comment.

While Cain muzzled New York with five hits, three of them by Phil Rizzuto, the Sox dug into Eddie Lopat and Don Johnson for a jackpot total of 23. The Yanks contributed four juicy errors.

Detroit rolled out the heavy power to riddle Connie Mack's battered pitching staff. The Tigers collected 15 hits to trim Philadelphia, 8-5, on Art Houttemanna's five-hitter. Vic Wertz and Hoot Evers drove in seven runs, enough to ruin the A's by themselves.

JOE OSTROWSKI of the St. Louis Browns backed up his fine April 29 job against Cleveland with a five-hitter against Washington to cop his second straight, 5-1, Rookie Ken Wood led the Browns with two singles and a double.

Revenge was sweet for Dick Sisler, a former St. Louis Card, who came home to haunt his old mates with five hits. Dick drove in five runs in the Phillies' 9-6 night game victory. One of Sisler's blows was his third homer off loser Gerry Staley in the second.

Brooklyn came up with another sore arm case—Dan Bankhead—while smothering the Chicago Cubs, 10-2. Bankhead, riding easy on a 10-1 lead, complained about a pain in his right shoulder and left the game in the sixth. Later it was reported Dan tore a muscle in his shoulder and would be out indefinitely.

A few minutes before Bankhead's trouble, the Dodgers announced Don Newcombe, their other Negro pitcher, was being sent home to Colonia, N. J., to rest his sore arm.

Pee Wee Reese, Dodger captain, was ejected for the first time in his career for tossing a bat in the air to protest umpire Babe Pinelli's decision in the fifth. It was Reese's 1,000th major league game.

Soon they'll be calling the Boston Braves the new "murderers' row." They cut loose for 11 runs in the ninth inning Wednesday. Yesterday they hit four homers in a 14-6 romp over Cincinnati. The Braves now lead the majors with 15 home runs.

The New York Giants walked Ralph Kiner yesterday to get out of trouble in the ninth. Instead Nanny Fernandez followed with a game-winning home run to give Pittsburgh a 3-1 victory. Larry Jansen, yielding his fourth homer of the season, was the victim.

Women Wrestlers To Appear Here May 19

The first appearance of "lady" wrestlers in Salem will be made Friday, May 19, in another mat show at the Memorial building under Promoter Frank "Toar" Julian, it was announced today.

The girls, Violet Viann and Therese Theis, will tangle in a two-of-three fall match as one of the co-features of the card. Their hair-pulling, screaming and unladylike tactics have amused grapping fans throughout the country.

Fred Bozic, 222, of Cleveland and Ruby Wright, a 280 pound character from Santa Monica, Calif., will battle in the other feature, also two of three falls. Julian will meet Jack Vansky, 228, of Kearny, N. J., in the curtain raiser.

Air Conditioning At ABC Adds Comfort

COLUMBUS, O., May 5—(AP)—They turned on the air-conditioning at the American Bowling Congress tournament alleys yesterday—and the scores were as cool as the weather. There were no changes in the standings of the various divisions.

While outside temperatures climbed as high as 83 degrees, the cooling system in the alleys remained around 72 degrees.

Tribe Faces Yanks After Beating Sox

NEW YORK, May 5—(AP)—Cleveland's Indians take on the World Champion New York Yankees today for the first time this season.

Rightlander Early Wynn will be after his first victory. So will southpaw Tommy Byrne who has lost one for the Yanks.

Manager Lou Boudreau of the Tribe probably will miss the contest. He strained a shoulder yesterday in the sixth inning on a diving stop of Birdie Tebbetts' grounder and was replaced at shortstop by Ray Boone.

At Boston Cleveland snapped a three-game losing streak by salvaging the finale of their three-game set to with the Boston Red Sox 5-4.

Catcher Jim Hegan, the only non-outfielding Indian regular hitting, cracked out two doubles and a single to raise his batting average to .379. His second double opened the ninth inning, and he brought home the winning run when Bob Lemon advanced him with a sacrifice bunt and Dale Mitchell poled out a long fly.

Mitchell drove in two Tribe markers in the third by singling with the base filled as a result of Al Rosen's single, Hegan's first double, and Lemon's walk.

Larry Doby was the other big gun in the Cleveland attack on Leftie Mel Parnell. Doby doubled in the third to score Luke Easter who had walked. And in the eighth Larry doubled again and scored the tying run on Joe Gordon's single.

Bob Lemon had a rough time in ending the Red Sox six-game winning string.

Dom DiMaggio opened the first inning with a single and a double by Johnny Pesky, a walk to Bobby Doerr and singles by Tom Wright and Walt Dropo added up to a trio of tallies. In the sixth Vern Stephens singled, Doerr and Wright fanned, then Dropo and Tebbetts beat out infield hits to fill the bases. Parnell then wangled a base on balls to force home a run that put Boston ahead 4-3.

Hogan's 64 Leading Greenbrier Open

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., May 5—(AP)—Sam Snead, on record as afraid of "lightning," Ben Hogan and a downhill putt," had at least Hogan to worry about again today.

Bantam Ben, with the best scoring round — a 64 — of his comeback effort behind him, had a two-stroke lead over Snead and Henry Ransom of St. Andrews, Ill., as the $10,000 Greenbrier Open golf tournament entered its second 18 holes.

The little Hershey, Pa., belter cut six strokes off par over the 6,368-yard Old White Course yesterday as his iron game worked with all its old time effectiveness.

Snead, the host pro, and Ransom came up with 66's. Chick Harbert of Detroit was close behind with a 67 as 15 of the field of 27 cracked par in the blazing sun.

The medal play will be concluded Sunday with a 36-hole pro-amateur featuring some of the nation's top business and social names being combined with the final two rounds.

Golf Swing Easier To Learn At 5 Than 25, Says Teacher

By DAVE BAUER

father and teacher of the famous sisters.

Start the child in golf right. A youngster can be started with a little driver, brassie or spoon, but the brassie is preferred.

It has a little more loft than a driver, so gets the ball off easier. Have the club made to the size of the child.

The father, or some competent golfer, should teach the youngster how to grip, swing and handle the club.

The stance is highly important. They can learn these things at five as well as 25—better, in fact. The nerves are keener and steadier at five, and a child is more likely to get the correct touch.

Don't try to teach too many things at once. Make the game simple. As I advised you earlier, I made my daughter, Marlene, a miniature brassie when she was 3½ years old, taught her the proper grip and swing.

In a month's time, she was hitting 35-yard drives with all the poise of a veteran.

Her drives were so accurate that you could have encircled the balls in a seven-foot diameter. You will be surprised, too.

Lausche Seeks Board Member

Wants "Integrity"
In Liquor Position

COLUMBUS, May 5—(AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche today was looking around for an "upstanding man of integrity" to appoint to the Ohio State board of liquor control.

The opening will be created when Walter W. Mitchell of Youngstown resigns to become executive secretary of the National Alcoholic Beverage Control Association.

Mitchell was elected executive secretary of the organization yesterday, and it was known that he had been seeking the post for some time.

Until recently he was chairman of the liquor board in Ohio, but was removed by Lausche who also asked his resignation. Mitchell refused to resign.

Asked about appointment of a successor to Mitchell, Lausche said he would confer first with state liquor Director Oscar L. Fleckner.

"I want someone with firm judgment who would look with favor on the justification of generally not establishing saloons in the annoying proximity of churches," Lausche said.

"I want an upstanding man of integrity who will do a decent job."

The appointee must be a Democrat because Ohio law says the board must be composed of two Republicans and two Democrats. Mitchell is a Democrat.

Mitchell joined the state liquor board Feb. 3, 1947, and became chairman in June, 1947. He was removed as chairman March 27 of this year. The governor said Mitchell was not doing his job properly.

Field Of 14 Horses May Go In Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 5 — (AP) — Old Louisville, already getting into the swing of things for the 76th Kentucky Derby, really started to jive today as Churchill Downs prepared to close the entry box on a field of around 14 horses for the $100,000 turf classic.

Opinions were a dime a dozen on who will win the tough mile and one-quarter gallop, as a star-studded field headed by California's Your Host prepared for the three-year-old battle charge at 4:30 p. m. (EST) tomorrow. Most everyone qualifies his guesswork on the condition of the track and whether more rain falls before post-time.

The entry box — prematurely opened yesterday long enough for the names of six challengers to slip through—will close at 10 a. m. (EST) today.

Your Host, who has been figured the speedball to step out the pace and try to roll all the way for the big pot and garland of roses, already has been entered.

He was the second name through the box yesterday, as some confusion attended the usually colorful entry ceremonies. The chestnut Alhibai colt owned by movie man William Goetz was the second one in the box. Trainer Ray Barnett submitted the name of Tuesday's derby trial, as the No. 1 entry in the Derby. Harry Daniels, Your Host's trainer, was next in line.

In fact several other of the big name babies got in on yesterday's entry affair. The biggest name aside from Your Host is the Virginia dandy—Hill Prince.

Chris Chenery's strapping bay charger is figured the one to beat Your Host, if anything can do the job. He's a slow starter, but when Eddie Arcaro steps on the throttle, Hill Prince can mow 'em down.

Others already named were Hal Price Headley's Lotowhite, surprise winner over Hill Prince in the second Experimental Handicap; the tough little Flamingo winner, Tom Gray's Oil Capitol; and the long shot Stranded, owned by R. H. Abercrombie and W. H. Smith, Houston oilmen.

Remington Denounces Red Accusations

WASHINGTON, May 5—(AP)—William W. Remington denied once again today that he ever was a Communist. Anyone who disputes that, he said, either doesn't know the facts or is "engaged in a deliberate falsehood."

The 32-year-old Commerce Department economist made the statement before the house Un-American Activities committee as the group opened a new inquiry into his loyalty.

Remington was suspended briefly two years ago from his $9,870 a year job as the result of a Senate investigation. He was reinstated after the government loyalty review board cleared him.

Chairman Wood (D-Ga) announced last week the House committee now has new evidence "from a highly confidential source." He did not give any hint as to the nature of the evidence.

Remington, a wartime Navy intelligence officer, said in his prepared statement he understood the committee is chiefly interested in a nine-month period when he served as a messenger with the Tennessee Valley Authority at the age of 18 or 19.

"I repeat again that I was not at that time or at any other time a member of the Communist party," he said.

Remington related that while he worked for TVA he joined the AFL Government Employees Union, which he described as "the center of extracurricular social activities."

Taft Plans 46-Day Ohio Jaunt In August

CLEVELAND, May 5—(AP)—Senator Robert A. Taft will hit the long Ohio road again in mid-August for 46 days in a hard attempt for reelection, it was disclosed today.

This will be sort of a repeat performance—with variations as to time and place—of his 100-day tour of every county in Ohio last year. His plans were disclosed here by Paul W. Walter, chairman of Taft's campaign in northern Ohio.

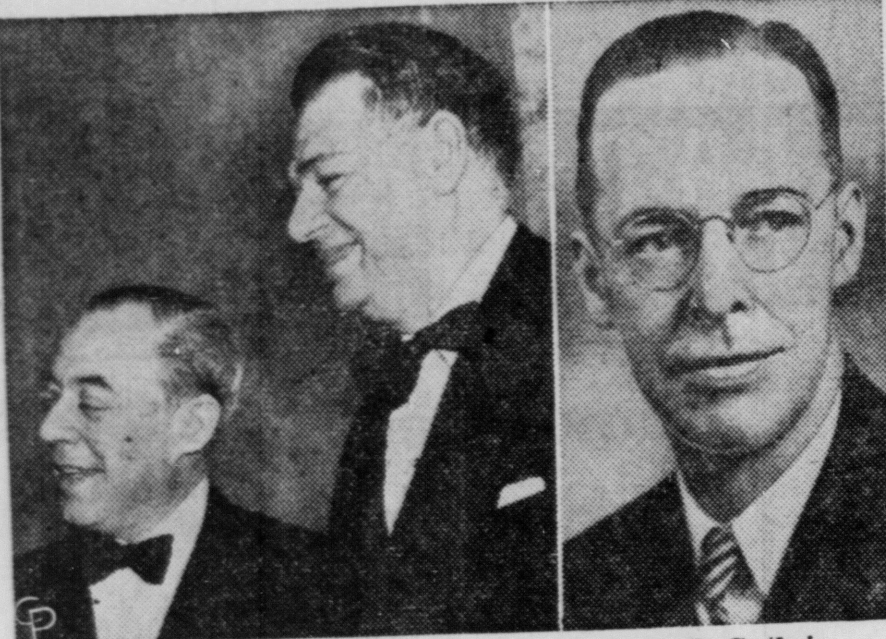

But this time, said Walter, the trip will be not what Taft called a "report to constituents." Instead, the Senator will slug away at the national administration and what he considers the "trend to socialism in the United States."

Woodward Nominated Ambassador To Canada

WASHINGTON, May 5—(AP)—President Truman has formally nominated Stanley Woodward as ambassador to Canada.

The president sent the nomination of the state department protocol chief to the Senate for confirmation.

Woodward, a close friend of the President and a companion on most of his vacation trips, would succeed Laurence A. Steinhardt,

Child Health Is Concern of All

SEVEN babies were born every minute last year in the United States. The 1949 estimate of 3,728,000 newcomers places the year second on the nation's birth rolls. The average last year was 10,214 births a day. The all-time high is held by 1947 and 1948 now rates third.

Why not come down to cases. It's everybody's business that this most important crop of ours gets a fair deal in daily nutrition. Certainly, it is an acknowledged fact that good health and well-balanced living go hand in hand with properly nourished bodies. Doctors and nutritionists unite in driving home the reminder that good nutrition begins in the cradle. But the right start in life often bogs down unless continued through adolescence.

Modern mothers are more interested in balanced nutrition than in doing things "the good old way." They use labor-saving recipes built around the best nutritional advice. Here are a few examples:

Creamed Veal and Egg Sauce (Makes 1 cup sauce)

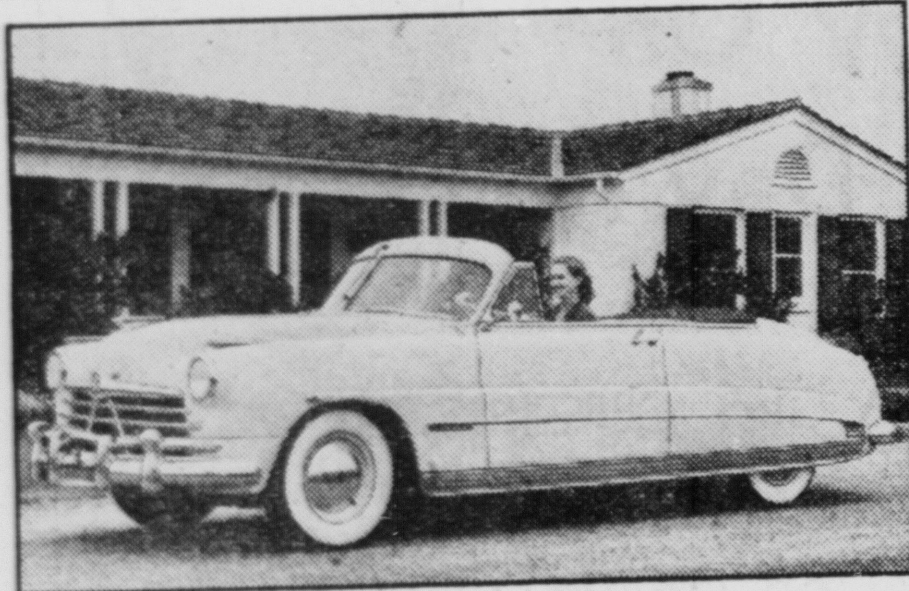

Combine ½ cup medium white sauce, 1 can (3½-ounce) strained veal and one-hard-cooked egg, chopped fine. Heat well together. Serve hot over waffles, toast or baked potato.

Deviled Eggs (Stuffs 4 halves)

Cut 2 hard-cooked eggs in half, lengthwise. Carefully remove yolks thoroughly. Blend well with 1 tablespoon softened butter or fortified margarine and ½ can strained liver. Season to taste.

Wallace Wagner

Beloit Carrier Cited By News

Wallace Warren Wagner, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wagner of Beloit, has been chosen by The Salem News as the "Carrier of the Week."

Wallace, the first carrier-salesman the News has had in Beloit, had to start his route from scratch. He has built up his route to 21 customers. Wallace attends the eighth grade at the Beloit School and has been on the honor roll all year.

He is a member of the Nazarene Church in Sebring and hasn't missed a Sunday at church in the past year. Wallace's ambition is to be a missionary and he contributes one-tenth of all his earnings to the church. Besides saving part of his earnings he buys some of his clothing and stamps for his stamp collection.

Wallace likes his route and feels that the experience of dealing with all kinds of people will help him in the missionary work he hopes to take up.

The News congratulates Wallace on being chosen the "Carrier of the Week" and is proud to have him as one of their "Little Merchants."

ORDINANCE

PASSED APRIL 25, 1950.

BEING AN ORDINANCE TO MERGE THE OFFICES OF DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC SAFETY AND DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC SAFETY OF CITY OF SALEM.

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Salem has, by Ordinance No. 30957-10, established a Municipal Water Commission to assume the duties of the Director of Public Service so far as that relates to the Salem Water Department; and

WHEREAS, Council has provided for the office of Water Department Superintendent for the management of the Water Department; and

WHEREAS, the duties and responsibilities of the Director of Public Service have thereby been greatly reduced; and

THEREFORE

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SALEM, STATE OF OHIO, A MAJORITY OF ALL MEMBERS ELECTED THERETO CONCURRING:

Section 1. That the office of the Director of Public Service be merged with the office of the Director of Public Safety, and one director, a Director of Public Safety and Service, be appointed for the merged department, as provided by Section 4259 of the Ohio General Code.

Section 2. That the duties of the Director of Public Safety and Service shall be such as are prescribed by law for the separate offices of Director of Public Service and Director of Public Safety.

Rare And Unusual Trees Grow On Farms In Salem District

By PEARL WALKER

THE LARGEST WHITE (salix alba) willow tree in the United States grows on a farm near Winona. It was discovered by F. Merrick Semans of North Jackson and is listed by the American Forestry Association in a report on America's big trees.

The association sponsors a national movement to locate and preserve the largest specimens of American trees.

German Teacher Visits Public Schools Here

Miss Elizabeth Hornlehn, German teacher from the American zone in Germany, is visiting Salem schools today and tomorrow. A graduate student at Ohio State University, she was able to come to this country with a fellowship provided by Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary women's educational fraternity. The local DKG Chapter is sponsoring her visit here.

She is observing elementary education in preparation to returning to Germany and teaching in an elementary school there. In addition to observing classes in the lower grades, she visited the High School German class.

She is a guest of Miss Dorothy Smith during her stay here.

Country Editors Back Freedom Rededication

AP Newsfeatures

PLYMOUTH, Mass.—Editors of America's country papers, weeklies and small dailies, are going back to Plymouth Rock June 25 under the auspices of the National Editorial Association.

That Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock the editors will hold a rededication service and reaffirm "our faith in the ideals of liberty and justice on which this nation was founded."

Of the 48 state governors who have been asked to proclaim June rededication month, 29 already have done so. Others are expected to follow.

The 5,300 editors in the association have asked ministers to use rededication sermons in each church of the nation June 25. They will stress the theme in their own editorials and ask other publications, radio stations, civic and veterans groups to do the same.

The 1950 convention of the association will be held June 15-20 at Providence, R. I. The trek to Plymouth Rock will follow.

Lester Williams, of Columbia, Miss., co-chairman of the rededication committee, wants to make it a "pilgrimage of rededication." He sees a peril to the nation in the "gradual loss of individual freedom" due to the encroachment of "big government, big business and big labor."

His co-chairman is Howard

Fowler, of Mansfield, Mass. The two chairmen will lead the editors on a tour of New England and Nova Scotia in the days between the end of the convention and the June 25 ceremony.

Members unable to attend the victory Sunday program will be called on at their home by one of the visitation teams.

Winona Methodists May Get Minister

The Winona Methodist church is taking steps toward supporting a full-time, ordained minister. Fred Tozer, supply pastor for several years, will graduate from Mount Union College in June and later will leave to enter Garrett Seminary at Evanston, Ill.

Members of the Winona church are being appraised of the new church program of local church and conference obligations. A copy of the church budget is being mailed to all members. Next week the members will receive a copy of the benevolence budget, while the third week information will be sent out telling the mem-
